Maniac Magee is a heart-warming book first published 25 years ago. It deals with racism and its effects on a young man who, though white, finds more warmth and kindness on the Black side of town than on "his own side." The characters are compelling, realistic, and will challenge whatever tendency you may have towards clustering with your own kind as a response to racial tension and injustice

Maniac Magee lived with his aunt and uncle, but they did not talk to each other so Maniac ran away. Maniac went to the black area where no whites are allowed. No blacks are allowed on the white side. Maniac went to both the black side and on the white side. He knew people from both sides. My favorite part in the book is when Maniac saved Russell and Pipper.
